"CITY OF ROGUE RIVER", ALIAS "TAILHOLT", ALIAS "WOODVILLE" Prior to the War, Davis (Coyote) Evans built a ferry and two log cabins at the mouth of Evans Creek; early travelers avoided Evans by fording the river at a point up stream. When so doing they found it expedient to take a firm grip on the tails of their horses. "Tailholt" was the descriptive label of the river crossing.

Stages carried express and mail thru the Valley for 35 years, from 1852 until the completion of the railroad in 1887. A wax seal on an envelope of early date carried the imprint, "Wells Fargo Express Co. Rogue River, Ore." The Woodville post office was established in 1874, John Woods, Postmaster. In 1912 the town was incorporated and again took its name from the Rogue River.

The first runs of Steelhead arrive in this area the latter part of August. These are considered our summer run fish and are noted for their voracious actions and spectacular fighting. These summer run fish continue through October and, without hesitation, our winter run fish arrive and continue to run through March. There is no differentiation between the summer run and the winter run. There are fish in the river from August through March with a usual peak of the summer run in October and the winter run in January.

MOTEL

THE ROGUE IS A SPORTSMAN'S DREAM!

Savage Rapids Dam has a fish ladder where salmon stage a spectacular show during their runs. Watch it! Each year chinook salmon, steelhead and sea-run cutthroat trout fight their way to spawning grounds at far away headwaters of the river. Guides may be engaged to take you down river thru miles of canyon wilderness and white water riffles into one of the last untouched frontiers of America.

In addition to the State Park, Rogue River and the adjacent region have guest ranches, private motor courts, hunting and fishing lodges offering quality accommodations and seclusion to the comfort-minded guests. There is something to fit most any pocketbook.
